BRECKENRIDGE COUNTY FARMERS' INSTITUTE HAS FINE MEETING

Good Attendance Wednesday Afternoon and Thursday--Excellent Addresses Made--Convened at Democratic Headquarters. President Drury Presided.

MISS HEYSER PRETTIEST GIRL PRESENT

The annual meeting of the Breckenridge County Farmers' Institute was opened in this city at the Democratic Headquarters Wednesday afternoon of last week. President C. H. Drury called the session at 1 p. m. and an opening prayer was made by the Rev. B. M. Currie. Mr. V. G. Babbage made the welcome address which was responded to by Mr. J. A. McClure. Business matters were transacted and the meeting was continued Thursday.

Mr. Drury was re-elected president; E. B. Oglesby was nominated and chosen vice president; H. M. Beard was made secretary. A report and advisory committee were selected from each district as follows: First District, H. DeH. Moorman; Second District, John Jennings; Third District, H. G. Vessels; Fourth District, C. H. Drury; Fifth District, J. T. McCamish; Sixth District, Frank Ruppert.

During the Institute some excellent addresses were made by Hon. T. H. Groves, of Tobaccoport, John Monarch, G. P. Rogers, J. A. McClure and Prof. Edwin Wroe. Besides these speeches, many very valuable discussions took place among the farmers and those who were not in attendance missed a splendid Institute.

Among some of the men present were: Walter Moorman, Jr., Wm. Beard, Taylor Beard, Herbert Beard and Clayton Beard. Their presence was greatly enjoyed and made the Institute quite pleasant socially. A number of ladies and young girls attended Thursday's meeting. Miss Ray Lewis Heyser was voted the most beautiful young lady present and was given a premium of one dollar and a half. Miss Heyser was delighted with the honor and she truly deserves it, for she is one, if not the most charming girl in Cloverport's society set. It was agreed by the members that the club meet every two weeks and at each meeting study the life (and composition within the members range) of some musical celebrity. Friday afternoon the life of Beethoven was discussed and the work brought up by members was usually good for a first meeting. Special mention should be made of the excellent paper read by little Miss Mary Alexander. The ease and brilliancy with which she sketched the life of the great Master, dwelling just long enough on each stage of his life, from the misery and pathos of his childhood to his wild but rather appropriate death scene to make it impressive was worthy of the work of an older person. It was agreed that the next Master discussed would be Robert Schuman. Toward the latter part of the afternoon a little social feature was indulged in after which the club adjourned, having spent a pleasant and most profitable afternoon.

Pittsburg, Oct. 15.—The Rev. Dr. Donald McDonald, of Kentucky, recently elected city missionary by the Pittsburg Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, died in the Columbia Hospital, at Wilkinsburg, a suburb of Pittsburg, at 2 o'clock this morning. Typhoid fever caused his death.

Bowmer--Moorman Wedding

Brilliantly Solemnized Last Night

Beautiful in all its appointments was the wedding of Miss Marion Hawes Bowmer and Mr. Charles Wickliffe Moorman which was solemnized last night in the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Masses of autumn foliage characterized the decorations, the chancel being brilliantly decorated in rich red, green and yellow leaves. Graceful branches of the foliage were banded densely around the altar and the scene was an ideal October celebration.

Just before the bridal party arrived Miss Ida White rendered a brief musical program for the guests who were ushered into the auditorium by Messrs. James Skillman, of Owensboro, Tom Bowmer and Wm. Bowmer of Louisville, and Mr. Chas. Skillman of this city. Only the relatives and out-of-town guests sat under the ribbons which were held by little Misses Elizabeth Sherman, of Toledo, Ohio, Eleanor Bates of Louisville, and Master Billy Minery of Benton Harbor, Michigan.

Miss Jean Todd of Owensboro, was maid of honor and Miss Madison Bell, of Louisville, was bridesmaid. They wore exquisite white dresses and carried large bunches of yellow chrysanthemums tied with plumosa. Promptly at nine o'clock the bridal party entered the church and the Rev. B. M. Curry officiated in the ceremony. The bride looked very charming in a handsome white lingerie gown and carried a magnificent bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil was caught back with orange blossoms.

An elegant reception followed at the home of the bride. Several who attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Bowmer were present. Last evening was also the forty-fourth anniversary of their marriage. The home was most attractively arranged for entertaining the guests and the color-scheme, yellow and white, was prettily carried out in every detail. Especially gorgeous was the dining room. Streamers of white tulle and smilax hung from the chandelier and were tied to the candlesticks on the bride's table, in the center of which was a huge mound of yellow chrysanthemums. Misses Irene Jarboe and Margaret Skillman carried French bouquets of red carnations and presided at the frappe bowls. The loaves were yellow and white, the cakes were white with lovers knots of yellow candy.

Mr. and Mrs. Moorman left on the West bound train at eleven o'clock for a short wedding tour after which they will be home at Versailles, Ky.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. K. Minery, of Benton Harbor, Mich.; Mrs. Hugh Atkinson, of Chicago; Mrs. John Burks, of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sherman, of Toledo, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Todd, Mrs. David, Miss Mary Todd, Miss Hattie Conway, of Owensboro; Mr. Thomas Delahunt, of Cannelton; Miss Dood Adair, of Havesville; Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, Miss Virginia Hubson, Mr. Claude Riley, Mr. Edwin Pierce of Versailles; Misses Katherine and Adelia Moorman, Miss Anna McComb of Louisville; Mr. Richard Wathen, of Bardston; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Beard, Dr. and Mrs. John Kincheloe, Mrs. Manie Moorman, of Hardinsburg; Mrs. Margaret Bennett of Henderson, Mrs. Lettler and Miss Evelyn Young, of Morganfield.

THREE GOOD MEN GONE.

Alex Hambleton, Luther Hendricks, And Hon. James Wortham Pass Away At Their Homes.

DEATHS DEEPLY REGRETTED.

The News regrets to learn of the death of the Hon. James S. Wortham, which occurred at his home in Leitch field last Sunday morning.

Mr. Wortham was one of the most prominent public men in this section of the state, having served this people in the state senate, and in other places of public trust.

As a lawyer, he ranked high in his profession. He has been a member of the Breckenridge bar for many years, and enjoyed a lucrative practice here. He was a thorough student of the law, and when it came to many intricate details, Mr. Wortham had few superiors. His host of friends in this county will be sad to learn of his death, and the members of the bar will miss him in the courts, where he has been a regular attendant for many years.

Luther Hendricks died Friday night at his home in this city after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Hendricks was eighty-two years of age and was well-known over the county.

He is survived by a wife and the following children: Messrs. Mike and Warfield Hendricks, Mrs. Scott Morton, Mrs. Jolly and Mrs. Lou Bethel.

Brief funeral services were held from the family residence Sunday morning by the Rev. Currie, after which the remains were interred in the cemetery at New Bethel.

After an illness of but a few days Alexander Hambleton passed away on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at his home in St. Louis addition. Death resulted from a complication of diseases. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon from the English M. E. church and the body was laid to rest in Cliff cemetery.

He was a soldier and served in the Confederate ranks under Generals Beauregard and Forrest. His wife preceded him in death two years ago. Two sons, survived him; they are John, of this city, and Eugene, of Louisville. He also leaves one brother and one sister who reside at Sorgho, Ky.—Cannelton Equator.

"THE RIGHT OF WAY."

Macaulay's Theatre Will Present An Excellent Play Next Week For Three Nights.

Guy Standing and Theodore Roberts in their famous roles of Charley Steele and Joe Portageas in Klaw & Erlinger's great production of "The Right of Way" will be the attraction at Macaulay's Theatre, Louisville, Ky., the first half of the week of October 26, with a matinee Wednesday.

Mr. Eugene Presbury, the chapter, draws a character equal in mental attainments, pagan to a degree, and primarily deficient in power to love and ability to find contentment. After a lapse of memory continuing through three years, as opposed to seven months in the novel, Steele is restored to his normal state, and not only recollects all of his past, but also realizes fully that he has found pure, genuine love in the interim. This is the radical change from the original story and constitutes the keynote of the play. The combat is not now one of the new against the old for all time, but one of right against wrong, as it applies to love, the only thing worth while in the eyes of the man.

TO TOBACCO GROWERS

We now expect a large Tobacco Contract for Breckenridge County Tobacco, to be delivered to different points in the county. We will know definitely in a few days. English complications will guarantee higher prices to our growers. We now suggest this, that the growers may see that their Committee is not receiving and procuring pledges solely for the American Tobacco Company, and that the growers may not bind themselves until they know our prices and terms. All we desire is open and fair competition, if we do get the contract.

Respectfully,

W. R. MOORMAN & SON

Farmers Wanted.

Washington, D. C., October 14, 1908. Wanted - 3,000 practical farmers who would like to own homes of their own. The Government has nearly 200,000 acres of land under the various irrigation projects throughout the West for which water will be available next season.

The farmplot on these projects varies in most cases from 40 to 80 acres of irrigable land, depending upon location. In many sections a tract of grazing land has been included in the farm unit, wherever practicable, bringing the total up to 160 acres.

The only charge for these farms, besides the regular land office fee for filing, is the actual cost of getting water to them, and payment may be made in ten annual installments, without interest.

These irrigation projects are scattered over the entire arid region, from Canada to the Mexican line. In consequence, every variety of crop grown in the temperate zone can be raised under them. If you would like fruit or dairy farm, a garden for market truck, a tract for diversified farming, hog or poultry raising, just write to the Statisticians of the U. S. Reclamation Service, Washington, D. C., for particulars.

Card Of Thanks.

We desire to thank our friends for their kindness and sympathy during our sorrow.

CLERGY INDORSE TAFT

Class Him as Highest Type of Christian Gentleman.

FREQUENT HIS HEADQUARTERS

Declare He Is Broad Minded and Represents Ideals of Best Statesmanship—A Bishop's Opinion of the Republican Nominee.

"Because he is the highest type of the Christian gentleman."

This is the way in which I heard the pastor of a Methodist church in southern Illinois end an argument with a layman on the train coming over here from St. Louis, says the Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat in a dispatch to his paper from Cincinnati. The dispatch continues: The layman, paying due respect to the cloth of his opponent, was trying to convince him that he should not support Mr. Taft for the presidency and instead should vote for the Democratic opponent. The churchman defended the principles of the Republican party and, as indicated, defended the man for whom he said he expected to vote from his personal standpoint of a churchman, "because he is the highest type of a Christian gentleman."

It gave me a new idea about Mr. Taft. It seemed to answer some of the criticisms I had heard of the Republican candidate and his creed. In recent years the Democratic candidate has intimidated his well paid Chattanooga lectures with Sunday sermons before religious and semireligious societies. It seems that he has made the most of this influence in this campaign, and I was curious to discover on my arrival here whether there was support from the church and semireligious elements in the country for the Republican nominee.

My arrival in this connection could not have been better timed. As I entered the office of Mr. Taft's private secretary Friday I saw Bishop J. C. Hartzell of the Methodist Episcopal church emerging from a conference with Mr. Taft. The bishop, I knew, has episcopal supervision over the work of his great church in Africa. He has been engaged for the past twelve years and has met and formed the acquaintance of many leading men not only in Africa, but in Europe and America. His acquaintance and influence within the Methodist church are second to those of few men, as he has for fifteen years been officer of the society which founded and now initiates a system of institutions of learning among both white and colored people in the southern states. He came to induce Mr. Taft to make a speech in Chicago before a society of which the bishop's son, Rev. M. C. Hartzell, is president.

It seemed odd to attempt to interview a churchman of his prominence on a political question at the headquarters of the Republican candidate, but I asked him for his view of Mr. Taft and the support of him by Christian people. He answered very readily: "The American people are to be congratulated upon the fact that whether Mr. Taft or Mr. Bryan is elected president of the United States they will have a man at the head of the nation who is not only clean in moral character, but whose pen and speech and example are always for the best ideals of our civilization as represented in the teachings of the Christian religion."

The bishop thought for a moment and then continued: "On some theological points I differ from both. As good Presbyterians I oppose Mr. Bryan's assent to the doctrine of 'divine decrees,' which teach that from all eternity it has been fixed who should be saved and who should be lost. I do not so read Scripture. Mr. Taft, I understand, is one of the Edward Everett Hale type, believing that Christ was a divinely perfect man whose precepts and life on earth are the key to man's salvation in time and eternity. With the church I believe that in that perfect man dwelt the divine nature."

Applying his discussion in a practical way, Bishop Hartzell continued: "Which of these men I shall vote for will not be decided by their own beliefs, but what they are as men and by the principles and policies they stand for in the administration of the government. I believe that in acting upon this view, as an American citizen, I am in harmony with the spirit and purpose of the founders of our republic, who put into the constitution that there should be no religious test as to qualifications to any office of public trust under the United States." My conviction is that the future of the nation depends very largely upon our people heeding that constitutional prohibition. Our nation owes much in moral character, statesmanship, literature, art and religion to those who have not been in strict harmony with some of the dogmas of the church. The days of the inquisition are past."

Secretary Taft on Tariff Wars.

Threatened riot was between the United States and Germany and the United States and France have been averted by commercial agreements under the power conferred upon the president in the third section of the Dingley tariff act.

Perhaps the Bryan managers display such fondness for campaign railroads because they dream of the traditional pots of gold at their end.

It is possible to concede that after Mr. Gompers' speeches in Texas that state may go Democratic.

DUNCAN CITES GOMPERS' IDEA.

James Duncan, first vice president of the American Federation of Labor and International secretory-treasurer of the Granville Cutlers' International Association of America, has sent out numerous identical letters declaring the absolute independence from partisanship of the American Federation of Labor. The letter is written on the stationery of the Granville Cutlers' union. Mr. Duncan is next in command of the American Federation of Labor to Mr. Gompers, and his letter is a direct repudiation of the attitude of the president of the American Federation of Labor in taking the organization into politics and exerting his influence to elect Bryan and Kern. Mr. Duncan is not advising union workmen to vote either for Bryan or Taft, but to rely on their own judgment and to exercise their own individual preference. The letter is as follows:

Sept. 17, 1908.

My Dear Sir—Your inquiry is similar to a number of other inquiries on the same subject and therefore needs the general answer.

The labor movement of our country, in as far as the political situation is concerned, is now, as heretofore, independent of parties. Those who have given the greatest thought to the subject within the ranks of organized labor have been busy from year to year for a long time, as part of their trade unionism, teaching or at least advising organized workers to not be bound to any particular party, but to vote for the principles they believe in, and to elect the best man to the greatest number of all the people, and that if any person aspired to public office to do so with the aspirant upon his merits and not because of his belonging or not belonging to any particular party. The intensity of recent events has caused more activity among the organized workers, in as far as political affairs are concerned, than in the past, and we may expect as men become educated to the public needs and the science of government they will become still more active politically.

The labor movement advises study of the different subjects and principles of the great political and economic questions of the organized worker who is a citizen and who should be able to vote intelligently as fully as possible in both ways—to cast his vote on election day in strict accordance with his conscience as to what would be the best for the whole people.

The hue and cry sent out by a portion of the public press that the labor vote was being harried, but one of the forms of political education which is being given to the public and to befit the public mind. The views, beliefs and inclinations of candidates for public office should in each instance be carefully scrutinized by all good citizens, and which includes all voting organized workers, instead of simply voting for a man because he may hold certain party affiliation, and the election this year and the campaign leading up to it, as far as organized labor is concerned, will be no exception to that rule. Very truly yours,

JAMES DUNCAN.

Lightning has struck the Bryan farm, but it has a confirmed habit of not striking the owner.

Where Did It Come From? A Story in Seven Chapters.

I. Mack and the Campaign Fund.
(New York Newspapers.)

Just before leaving New York for Chicago Chairman Mack of the Democratic national committee said that he had secured $300,000 from the past committee administration.

II. What William Randolph Hearst Said in His Speech at Columbus, O., Sept. 17.

"Mr. Roosevelt prosecuted the Standard Oil, and the Standard Oil went out of the Republican party and into the Democratic party. The Democratic party welcomed it. Mr. Bryan appointed C. N. Haskell, political paymaster of the Standard Oil, to be chairman of his committee on platform. After a platform had been drawn up by Mr. Haskell which was satisfactory to the Standard Oil Mr. Bryan made Mr. Haskell treasurer of his national campaign fund to collect from the Standard Oil substantial evidence of the great monopoly's appreciation."

III. What President Roosevelt Said.

"Governor Haskell stands high in the councils of Mr. Bryan and is the treasurer of his national campaign committee. * * * The publication of this correspondence not merely justifies in striking fashion the action of the administration, but also casts a curious side light on the attacks made upon the administration both in the Denver convention, which nominated Mr. Bryan, and in the course of Mr. Bryan's campaign."

IV. What Haskell Said in His Telegram to Hearst on Sept. 19.

"Should this committee (of newspaper editors) find your charges sustained I shall withdraw from all connection with the present presidential campaign."

V. What Chairman Mack Said.

"I regarded the question as to whether Taggart had turned over $300,000 to me as a joke, and my answer was intended as a joke also."

VI. What Governor Haskell Said.

(From New York Evening Post, Sept. 22.)

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 22.—Charles N. Haskell, governor of Oklahoma and treasurer of the Democratic committee, passed through Kansas City last night, bound for his home in Oklahoma, from the east, where he has been making speeches. * * * As his train pulled out Mr. Haskell shouted, "And don't forget to say that the campaign fund is growing fast."

VII. What Governor Haskell Did.

(From Newspapers of Sept. 24.)

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Governor Charles N. Haskell of Oklahoma resigned as treasurer of the Democratic national committee shortly after midnight after a protracted conference with Judge Wade of Iowa and Josephus Daniels, director of the Democratic publicity bureau.

AGAINST CORPORATIONS.

Judge Taft's Decision in the Narramore Personal Injury Case.

If men who labor come to know Mr. Taft and study what he has done for their interests they will wonder how there could be any sincerity in the attempt by the Democratic party to prejudice labor against him.

Take the Narramore personal injury case in Ohio, which when considered should forever set at rest all this manufactured talk for political effect charging Mr. Taft with being the "father of government by injunction."

Judge Taft's decision in the Narramore case when he was on the bench has been of tremendous benefit to employee as against employer in Ohio in personal injury cases.

The facts of the Narramore case are these: Early in 1909 Narramore was a brakeman on the Big Four road. One day while at work his foot caught in an unlocked frog. A train came along, and he was maimed for life. The railroad refused to do anything for him and his wife and children dependent upon him for support. Narramore sought the aid of the courts.

Ohio law held that the frog should not have been left open and courts generally held that an employee, knowing that his employer was in the habit of disobeying a law intended for the employee's protection, by continuing at work assumed the risks of the employment. The judge before whom the case was tried promptly dismissed the complaint.

On appeal the case reached the United States court of appeals and came before Judge Taft. Judge Taft's decision was very masterfully for the railroad, but the Republican candidate for president went squarely against Ohio court precedents and of courts in many other parts of the country in rendering a decision in favor of Narramore. In his decision Judge Taft said:

"The intention of the Ohio legislature was to protect the employees of railways from injury from a frequent source of danger by compelling the railway company to adopt a well known safety device. And, although an employee impliedly waives a compliance with the statute and agrees to assume the risk from unblocked frogs and switches by continuing in the service without complaint, this court will not recognize or enforce such agreement. The imposition of a penalty for the violation of a statute does not exclude other means of enforcement, and to permit the company to avail itself of such an assumption of risk by its employees is in effect to enable it to nullify a penal statute and to 'fight against public policy.'"

Judge Taft's decision still stands as the law in Federal courts. When the common law courts in Cleveland took an opposite stand in 1903 the Ohio legislature in the spring of 1904 passed a law which made Judge Taft's decision one of the laws of Ohio. Who shall estimate the service that Judge Taft performed for all who labor in dangerous employment by his decision in the Narramore case, which made the law on the side of those who work?

The decision in the Narramore case was against gigantic corporate interests and in the face of Ohio supreme court decisions, but Judge Taft found a way to justice through the meshes of the law skillfully and to the great benefit of all time to those who labor. His record on the bench is not one requiring explanation, but according to see its convincing justice and fairness. In all this talk for the purpose of creating misguided prejudice there is not a Democrat in the land who has to do to any of his decisions were wrong.

In all his career Judge Taft by deeds has shown the broadest sympathy for all who labor. No man will go farther than he in efforts in their behalf, but he is not indulging in cheap talk of the Democratic type of misrepresentations to catch a vote.

WORLD BLAMES BRYAN.

Says He Must Have Been Familiar With Haskell's Record.

(From the New York World, Sept. 27.)

The main fault to be found with Governor Haskell's resignation as treasurer of the Democratic national committee is that it came a week too late.

Haskell should have been forced out at once, and Mr. Bryan should never have challenged Mr. Roosevelt to prove the Heaviest charges or any other charges against the Oklahoma governor. Mr. Bryan must have known Haskell's record when he assumed personal responsibility for the man. If he did not it was because he had closed his eyes to the facts from information. It was inevitable that the moment Mr. Roosevelt succeeded in making an issue of Haskell's record the Democratic party would be compelled to drop him. The attempt to defend him was a sorry political blunder.

President Gompers and the Democratic Party.

President Samuel Gompers has allied himself with Bryan and the Democratic party.

Has he acted wisely?

The majority of the Democrats in the national house of representatives come from the south.

The south is an enemy of union labor and believes in child labor.

Some southern states have no laws limiting the hours of labor for women and children, and some have regulations that are not enforced.

What does Gompers expect from a party dominated by the south?

What benefit can the rank and file of labor receive by following President Gompers politically?—Wage Earner.

The reason why you should vote for Taft, is he is qualified for the Presidency. Bryan is not.

Yes, Bryan has a record. It can be found up at Ed. Alexander's in his phonograph.

The little old log cabin has the right of way this time on the ballot. Had you thought of that, in old Kentucky?

The people are now voting for the man of standing, character and experience. We have these men in Taft and Johnson. Vote for them.

Bryan will father any doctrine that he thinks will get votes. This is a pretty hard thing to say of a man of Mr. Bryan's standing, but it is true and his record proves it.

Jerry Tilford has been conductor on the Branch Train so long that he knows the names of all the women and children who travel and the names of all the dogs that bark at the trains. Jerry is in love with his job, so are the traveling public with him.

Dr. Gaddie is going over the district trying to make capital out of a few donations. Col. Johnson made to some churches and it is a fact that he was liberal in this way and helped one and all who asked for help. It is no discredit to him. His giving shows a big heart and a liberal christian spirit.

Ben Johnson can help us in our fight for the improvement of the Ohio River. Breckinridge county is vitally interested in this improvement. She has more miles of water way than any other county in the district and a nine foot stage of water in the Ohio would benefit her immensely. Ben Johnson's influence and his work for this measure would be worth ten times as much as the little influence of a man like Gaddie.

Your duty as an American citizen demands that you vote for the man best qualified to represent you regardless of party. No man can question Ben Johnson's qualifications. He has been tried all along the line and proved true to himself and the people. Dr. Gaddie is an unknown quantity. Not known outside his home town. His only reason for being a candidate is he hopes to get in line for a Post Office or some federal government position.

MIX THIS.

Prepare At Home By Shaking Ingredients Well In A Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder disengagement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sassafras, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, declared that the ingredients are all harmless and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic affections with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

A VILLAGE HOME

Where Pe-ru-na Is Used As An All-Round Reliable Family Medicine.

Fountainville, Pa., Feb. 16, 1908.

S. B. Hartman, M. D.
Dear Sir: I have been thinking of writing to you for some time to let you know what Peru-na did for me. I am 57 years old. I lost my health about six or seven years ago. I first had dyspepsia and employed different doctors.

Last year I injured one of my kidneys. I had one of the best doctors for that. He put me to bed, not to move for two weeks.

I slowly recovered, but was so weak and prostrated that I could walk but a short distance. In fact I had to keep quiet.

I took several remedies, but obtained no relief. I also had catarrh in some form.

My wife advised me to take Peru-na, and it is with pleasure that I can say that by taking one and one-half bottles of your Peru-na, it cured me and I feel all right. I send this with many thanks to you, as I enjoy life again.

My wife has also been taking your Peru-na for asthma and it helps to relieve her. We keep your Peru-na in the house constantly. Again I say I thank you for Peru-na.

Sincerely yours,
PHILIP KRATZ.

Fountainville, Pa., Nov. 9, 1908.

Dr. S. B. Hartman.
Dear Sir: I have good health now and your valuable medicine gave me good health. I have had no doctor for some time, as I do not need any. When I take cold I take Peru-na and in a short time I am all right. My wife is subject to asthma. She takes Peru-na at that time, and she has had no need for a doctor for some time. With many thanks for your medicine, we remain,

Sincerely yours,
PHILIP KRATZ.

Fountainville, Pa., April 16, 1908.

Dr. S. B. Hartman.
Dear Sir: We have Peru-na in the house all the time and when we think we need it, we take it. We are about sixty years old and have not called a doctor to our place for some years.

We go out in all kinds of weather and sometimes when we go on a trip we take Peru-na along. A preventive is better than a cure. That has been our experience.

I had poor health some years ago and when I found your medicine I felt the right thing. We both thank you for your good medicine.

Sincerely yours,
PHILIP KRATZ.

Witness my signatures.

I, John Donnelly, Mayor of Doylestown, Pa., have been acquainted with Mr. Philip Kratz for 25 years. I know him to be an honorable and useful citizen. He, in my presence, signed the above statements concerning Peru-na, which I have every reason to believe are true in all particulars.
SIGNED, JOHN DONNELLY, Esq.

HOW UNCLE SAM'S FORESTS ARE PROTECTED FROM FIRE.

Nothing could better call the attention of thinking people the necessity for the preservation of our natural resources than the great forest fires which have been so widely distributed throughout the country and have played such havoc this summer. It is doubtful if the losses for the year 1908 will ever be fully known, but a conservative estimate by Dr. W. J. McGee, Erosion Expert, United States Department of Agriculture, places the aggregate loss in all parts of the country during these months of conflagration at $1,000,000 a day.

In nearly every instance, probably in every instance, these devastating fires might have been prevented if the various states had provided an adequate number of men to patrol the woods and arrest at such fire in their incipency and if lumbermen and other users of the forest were careful to dispose of brush after logging so as to prevent the spread of fires.

Uncle Sam has had a lot of work to do on his National Forests in the fire-fighting line this year, but his work has shown good results. Exclusive of the salaries of forest officers, the work of putting down fires on the National Forests for the year has cost the government $10,000. This means protecting approximately 108,000,000 acres. The value of the timber destroyed will not be known until the fire reports are made at the end of the year, though it is estimated that it will be larger than last year. But it will be insignificant when compared with the appalling fire losses outside of the National Forests. An unprotected area, or with the destruction which would have come to the timber in the National Forests had they not been protected.

SOCIETY NOTES.

The continuance of the ideal and glorious autumn days, is affording extreme pleasure for all lovers of outdoor life. Several are spending the afternoons on the river, some drive and others play tennis. However, many of the society set have been going to the parties given for the eighth 1908 Cloverport bride, Miss Marion Hawes Bower.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fraire, Miss Josie Raitt and Miss Jennie Warfield had a pleasant day at Hardin's Mill Sunday. They cooked dinner under the trees and had a pleasing taste of camp life.

Mrs. James Harris and Mrs. Ira Behen chaperoned Miss Eva Plank, Miss Jennie Mabel Harris, and Miss Edith Plank to Louisville Wednesday to see the matinee "Much Ado About Nothing."

An announcement of much interest to many over the state is the engagement of Miss Little Belle Mortimer and Mr. Charles Thomas Stuart. The wedding will be solemnized in Louisville the eighteenth of November. Miss Mortimer is one of Louisville's most popular society girls and Mr. Stuart is a well-known newspaper man.

Mrs. L. T. Reid's party for Miss Bower last Wednesday afternoon was indeed beautiful. The forty-two was played. The color-scheme of the occasion was white and yellow and was attractively carried out in the hand-painted tallees and laces.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Chas. B. Skillman gave a surprise miscellaneous shower complimentary to Miss Bower. The dining room where the shower was held was brilliant with gorgeous decorations in red. Red paper chrysanthemums were used most attractively and a huge one occupied the table and covered the gifts. Miss Bower became intensely excited as she pulled from under the flower many exquisite presents.

Dr. W. N. Casper, dentist, will be here Wednesday and Thursday of every week, at Dr. Lightfoot's office.

 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of their offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that is fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Nice Letter.

Dear Editor:—I thought I would write a letter to the News. I have lots of uncle's and aunts living there which I have never seen but would love to see them very much. There is a good crop this year wheat is worth 85 c per bu; corn is worth 50 c per bu. I am a little girl ten years old. My teacher's name is Miss. Allie Brown. I like her fine. I go to school every day. I like to go very much.

There are five dry goods stores in town. There are two drug stores, one furniture store, one hardware three implement stores, two banks and one flour mill. We haven't had any frost out here yet. This fall. It is fine weather now. Well I will close, yours, Ruth Basham. Alton, Kans. Oct-9-08.

Don't be deceived by imitations of DeWitt's Capitoline Witch Hazel Salve. When you ask for DeWitt's be sure to get it. The name is stamped on every box. There is just one original. It is especially good for piles. We sell and recommend them. Sold by all Druggists.

DOCTOR ADVISED USE OF CUTICURA

After Other Treatment Failed—
Eczema in Raw Spot on Baby
Boy's Face Lasted for Months—
Grieved with Pain when Washed.

ECZEMA WAS CURED AND HAS NEVER REAPPEARED

"Our baby boy broke out with eczema on his face when one month old. One place on the side of his face the skin of a nickel was raw like beefsteak for three months, and he would cry out when I bathed the parts that were sore and broken out. I gave him three months' treatment from a good doctor, but at the end of that time the child was no better. Then my doctor recommended Cuticura. After using a cake of Cuticura Soap, a third of a box of Cuticura Ointment, and half a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent he was well and his face was as smooth as any baby's. He is now two years and a half old and no eczema has reappeared. I am still using the Cuticura Soap; I think it is the finest toilet soap I ever used. I keep my little girl's hair and face cleansed with it too. I am so thankful for what Cuticura has done for us. Mrs. M. L. Harris, R. F. D. 1, Alton, Kan., May 14 and June 14, '07."
